

Thank You ... for Responding to our BMSJ Tour Hosting Program!

Body Mind Spirit Journeys has assisted hundreds of Tour Hosts with coordinating and marketing their group travel programs. We are International Tour Operators and a Travel Marketing Company, which allows us to provide you with the marketing tools to build your group successfully. If you are able to promote and sell a custom designed tour for 15 or more guests who would like to travel with you, we're ready to make that happen.

While promoting and selling the tour is your responsibility, we are here to help you customize and design the program you need, and provide all of the marketing ideas and assistance you'll require

- We'll work with you to design your custom itinerary to the world's most powerful sacred sites destinations.
- We'll provide you with tour brochures and/or flyers ready for you to print.
- We'll handle all the bookings and accounting for your travelers, updating you weekly with status reports and coordinating the ongoing marketing with ideas that will help you build a successful group.
- We'll handle every detail of your custom itinerary, providing guides, accommodation, transportation, meals, flights and special features (private opening of sites, meetings, meditation, etc.) where required.
- We'll manage everything on the tour, from departure to return (as much or as little as you need), based on your desires and expectations, and of course the price point of your tour.
- We'll provide you and your travelers a unique travel experience. Thus YOU can participate as much or as little as you wish.

We have been delivering custom designed programs for over 15 years to those who seek a unique experience. Our parent company, RMC Travel, was founded in 1948, and in addition to having superior buying power, is bonded and holds a $1 Million Errors and Omissions Insurance Policy per passenger. (Note: PLEASE make sure ANY company you arrange a tour program with has this industry experience, leverage, and offers this protection for you and your guests.)

We need additional information to help us determine if our partnership in this opportunity will work successfully for both of us. We know what it takes and neither of us wants to enter into an unworkable relationship.

Please complete this host information request:

We work with Tour Hosts who have regional reach and are known within their own areas, as well as those who are internationally known and recognized, and we help design transformational and unique tour programs for each.

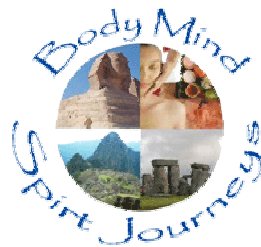

PRIVATE BUILD YOUR OWN TOUR: In promoting your tour program, we expect you to have the ability to utilize the marketing materials, experience and assistance we provide, so you can build your own group successfully. We will designate a private portion of our BMSJ Internet site where you can direct those you invite. This area specifically pertains to your program. Your personal invitation, all of the printable information, brochures, flyers, registration and interest areas can be linked to directly from your site, thus all of your trip information is just a click away for anyone. Group Hosts generally price their programs to include free trips for themselves, earning one completely free trip for every 10 full-paying passengers. A typical group size is 20 – 40 guests, and the minimum number required to travel as an independent group is 15.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN AND RECOGNIZED TOUR LEADERS are generally famous authors or experts in their field of interest. For those who qualify, Body Mind Spirit Journeys becomes their "partner" in promoting, marketing, selling and operating every aspect of their program. The Tours these professionals provide become our own BMSJ published Journeys and receive all of the benefits of our experience. PLUS, as a Featured BMSJ tour leader, your program will be seen by the tens of thousands of visitors a month who come to our family of Internet sites. As this is a partnership, we always expect our Tour Leaders to use their best effort to promote their trip during book signings, seminars, and speaking engagements.

Please – at your earliest convenience – complete, print and return this information to us by mail, fax or return Email and we will contact you to discuss all of the possibilities.

Kind Regards,
